

I am sending this email to urge your organization to please reconsider lifting the ban on media concentration. The people within the areas effected by this rule will suffer greatly by the lifting of this ban. The beauty of the American Media is that it is so diverse, and that diversity allows people to gather conflicting opinions to form their own.